The meeting was called to order at 10:40 a.m. Ron, Tony, Jesse, John, Diane, and Norma were present.

Tony read the minutes. Jesse suggested page numbers be put on the minutes. The minutes were accepted.

Diane said, "When I tried to register Mary and myself for the international convention, Maria said two people can go. That's probably for retirees. I'll get the correct info."

Regarding the constitution, Ron sent final copies to everyone on the constitution committee by email.

Norma said, "It hasn't been approved and I haven't sent it to Maria."

On the FAIR tax, Ron said, "I will contact other presidents next week now that early voting is starting."

Jesse asked if there could be a lawsuit by the Republicans.

John said, "Nonsense." He also said we should do one more postcard mailing on the FAIR tax close to the election.

Diane paid Forest Printing for the last mailing.

Norma said the membership list has been updated.

The audit was discussed, with the question of having the meeting in person or having a ZOOM meeting.

Jesse brought up trying to get Diane's name on the bank account.

John asked if Jesse and Diane had discussed putting some of the money in the checking account into an interest bearing account.

Diane said, "We can write a resolution. I'll ask my local what they're doing." She went on to bring up the statewide PEOPLE meeting on August 29, and asked for any legislative updates.

John said, "Tammy Duckworth's water supply bill was deferred, and she will not support it at this time."

Diane said, "The convention is the 13th; I'll contact another president that's going."

The meeting was adjourned at 11:30 a.m.
